Two young, ambitiously poor farm boys from Limestone, Tennessee wanted to start a business. Whatever would they do? They first thought about starting something that every teenage boy dreams about! Obviously, that would be the Victoria's Secret Catalog! Alas, the two are no longer teenagers and the good Lord above convicted them of their lusty intentions. They also had the bright idea of starting a small country! However, there weren't enough dumb people in the world to follow them. Finally, they had it! They would open up a drug-free gym. But not just any gym, it would be a health club. An architectural masterpiece decorated with jazzy colors, and stocked with state of the art equipment direct from the Corporate Dyna Body Office. A place that was fun, exciting, and full of energy - a place that was called Dyna Body by Lee and selected as a showcase Health Club for the five state areas. So on January 1, 2001 - in the Year of our Lord Jesus - Dyna Body by Lee was born in Abingdon, Virginia.

myself right now."*
